

Customized Multimedia Support

Many of the meeting and event spaces at UMass Boston feature built-in audio visual equipment. The technology can be easily utilized by our clients or event support staff. Our standard built-in services are included in your reservation.

In instances where more advanced multimedia services are required, AV Services at UMass Boston is available to support your conference, meeting or special event. For an additional fee, AV Services can provide customized technology support including:

Onsite IT and Audio Visual Support

Audio and Video Engineering Support for Public Address and Video Projection, including; Multiple Microphone Mixing, Video Signal Distribution, Computer and DVD Playback and Projection Assistance.

Live Event Production

Event Video Production, Direction and Recording utilizing Single or Multiple Cameras and Technical Support Staff for Image Magnification and Live Streaming.

Studio Production

Fully Equipped TV studio and Master Control Room for Multiple or Single camera Interview Recording or Remote Feed hosting via Verizon TV 1 Fiber Connection.

Post Production Services

Final Cut Pro Video editing, including Title Creation and DVD Authoring, MPEG 4 Video File Creation for YouTube, Brightcove or internal servers posting, multiple file format Creation and Transcoding.

Videoconferencing

Support for SD and HD Room Based Videoconferencing, Webinars, Skype and WebEx Meetings.

Duplication and Media Conversion Services

DVD, CD, videotape and audio cassette formats. The VPC also provides file conversion for WMV, QuickTime and MP4 video formats.

Event Services reserves the right to refer you to AV Services based on the size and scope of your audio visual and technology needs. Event Services will work with you and AV Services to ensure your event is a success.

Event Services

Campus Center, UL 330 | 617.287.4800 | event.services@umb.edu